MONTBLANC ARTISAN EDITION HOMAGE TO WASSILY KANDINSKY

As Montblanc celebrates 110 years of its pioneering spirit, it pays tribute to one of the most influential painters and art theorists reflecting another 20th century pioneer: Wassily Kandinsky (1866 – 1944). The design of the Artisan Edition Homage to Kandinsky Limited Edition 3 highlights his pioneering approach to abstract art with the skeletonized cap in Au750 white gold featuring the geometrical shapes in a 3D layered effect and the curved black lines of Yellow-Red-Blue (1925), one of his great masterpieces during his Bauhaus years. The limitation number of just three pieces is based on the three primary colours of the painting, masterfully recreated in blue, yellow and red gemstones set in the white gold structure of the fountain pen.

ATMOS 568 BY MARC NEWSON, JAEGER-LECOULTRE

Since 2008, Jaeger-LeCoultre and designer Marc Newson have been teaming up to pool their expertise and spark off each other's creative energy, working together on a new and unique interpretation of the iconic Atmos. At first glance, what draws the eye in Marc Newson's Atmos 568 is its timekeeping mechanism, which appears to float freely in the air, while actually being held in place by the rear part of the movement. Its very simple dial is optimised for easy legibility. Although light passes right through the clear glass face, it is simple to read thanks to blue transferred Arabic numerals that always face outwards and are underscored by a minute circle.
